'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

... If I have understood correctly, have you created a uniform punishment for certain offences, etc., which is pronounced as a temporary or lifelong banishment?

Semjase

37. Sure, you got it right:

Semjase

38. If the punishment is still applied very primitively everywhere in you, then this is no longer the case with us.

Semjase

39. Our legislation corresponds to our conscious intellectual level and is therefore truly humane, which cannot be said of your legislation.

Semjase

40. Serious offences are no longer punished with us by total elimination and damage of the material body etc., as this is still barbaric custom and custom with you.

Semjase

41. Our Unity Adherence finds its application in a banishment for time or for life.

Semjase

42. The fallible life forms are banished in this respect to other worlds, which serve exclusively only this purpose.

Semjase

43. Moreover, only same-sex life forms are banished to such a world, i.e. only male or only female life forms.

Semjase

44. This prevents reproduction and no offspring can be conceived.

Semjase

45. The exiled are on their own on their worlds and have to take care of themselves through their own work.

Semjase

46. Any mechanical or apparatus aids, etc., are made available to them, but they are deprived of permission to make such aids themselves if they could be used for escape.

Semjase

47. In order to emphasise this provision, regular checks are carried out on these worlds and any secretly manufactured products of this kind are eliminated.

Semjase

48. In addition, any personal physical contact with any other forms of life outside the places of performance will be completely eliminated.

Semjase

49. On some of our worlds, fallible life forms are banished also on large islands in large seas, if the fallibility rate of the respective worlds is only very small.

Semjase

50. However, the whole handling and execution is the same as for worlds specially selected for this purpose.

Semjase

51. This form of punishment ensures the greatest possible security for the order to be observed, and on the other hand the mistakes are not a burden on the masses.

Semjase

52. Besides, however, this form of punishment is very humane and expedient, because during the life-long or temporal exile, the misguided are not inhibited in their development.

Semjase

53. Besides, crime and the like is practically non-existent in our country.

// Plejaren Contact Report //

- Plejaren's method of punishment for offenders is temporary or lifelong exile, offenders are not inhibited in their own development during such exile.

- Plejaren's reproduction requires the union of male and female, just like that of Earth humans.

Semjase

59. Creation has endowed each individual form of life with very specific values, so that it can reproduce in a very natural way.

Semjase

60. The law of unity is of equal value in the whole universe, namely that two values of different and thus female and male sex, each uniform in itself, together form and result in a large unit or a hyper-unit, thus also in the form of the reproduction of any material life forms.

Semjase

61. Only these reproduce and are bound to the law of species conservation.

Semjase

62. Higher spiritual forms are beyond this state, because they have become liberated from their material body and thus also from the need of procreation.

Semjase

63. But they are not able to create new spirits, for only the Creation itself is able to do this.

Semjase

64. The act of reproduction forms a uniform form throughout the universe.

Semjase

65. This means that universally uniform always both values, positive and negative, male and female, must come together to unite in order to guarantee the procreation of a progeny.

Semjase

66. This was created by the Creation in this manner, and there is no other possibility if the self-fertilization of certain forms of life, which are classified to a certain bisexuality, is ignored.

// Plejaren Contact Report //

• Every material life form conforms to the natural law of reproduction, which is the natural union of the male and female values.

• Only the higher evolved spiritual (Creation-Energy) forms, which have been freed from the fetters of the physical body, no longer need to reproduce.

- It is possible for a woman to become pregnant without a man (in extremely rare occasions).

Semjase

82. Here and there fertilizations of female life forms come to light, without a male potency having caused the decisive procreation.

Semjase

83. However, even in these cases it is not a matter of any kind of generation by mental forces etc., but of simple misdirection and misdirection of hormonal factors in the female hormone balance.

Semjase

84. In these matters, however, another factor must be taken into consideration which can lead to unwanted and uncontrollable procreations:

Semjase

85. Human male seeds, as well as many other life forms, can sometimes survive for several days when they have left their production organs.

Semjase

86. If they fall in suitable places, they are able to work their way up to those areas where they are able to cause fertilisation.

Semjase

87. If we use the human beings of Earth as objects of comparison, such a fertilization process can be described with the following words:

Semjase

88. If the woman is very sensitive and receptive to fertilisation, it is sufficient to initiate fertilisation if the male seed is deposited outside and near her reproductive organ.

Semjase

89. Depending on the stability of the semen in question, it can then work its way into the organ of conception and fertilise the female egg stored there.

Semjase

90. In very extreme cases, such fertilization is even possible if the male seed is deposited further away, for example at the height of the bosom.

Semjase

91. As mentioned above, male sperm can often survive for longer periods of time, even up to six days in some cases.

Semjase

92. Three days are already on the agenda and two days are already normal.

// Plejaren Contact Report //

• It is possible for a woman to become pregnant without a man's sperms, but this does not involve the use of any Spiritual (Creation-Energy) power.

• In fact, male sperm are capable of surviving outside the body for 2-3 days and in some cases up to 6 days.

• And if the male sperm are present near the organ of reproduction, they may fertilize the woman if she is sensitive and receptive to fertilization.

Contact Report / Topic Excerpts

- Plejaren marriage is between a man and a woman, but the man may marry more than one woman.

'Billy' Eduard Albert Meier

... what about marriage and the procreation of offspring?

Semjase

93. Fundamentally, our laws and recommendations in this regard are still partially preserved in many of your ancient writings, for they were transmitted to you by our distant ancestors:

Semjase

94. With our race, often only marriages of non-monogamous shape are done, after most exact clarification of all facts concerning togetherness.

Semjase

95. Of course, mistakes in these things cannot be excluded, but they will be eliminated or corrected if necessary.

Semjase

96. The progeny is determined by the highest rate in the sense that a certain number of births in a certain period must be kept in order to preserve the breed and not cause overpopulation.

Semjase

97. It is naturally the duty of each individual life form to procreate offspring for the conservation of the species and to exercise control over them.

Semjase

98. Forms of life that are united in a marriage, i.e. woman and man, remain classified in this union for the duration of their lives.

Semjase

99. Divorces, as you know them, are inadequate and allowed only in those blatant cases in which the laws and recommendations of the marriage covenant are grossly violated, with the guilty then falling into banishment.

Semjase

100. These are however occurrences, which belong to the absolute rarity with our races.

Semjase

101. The handling of the laws and recommendations for the individual things of marriage and sexual intercourse etc. I do not have to mention here specifically, because you can read Talmud Jmmanuel from this book.

Semjase

102. Our laws have been the same for thousands of years and are consistent with Jmmanuel's interpretations of the Talmud.

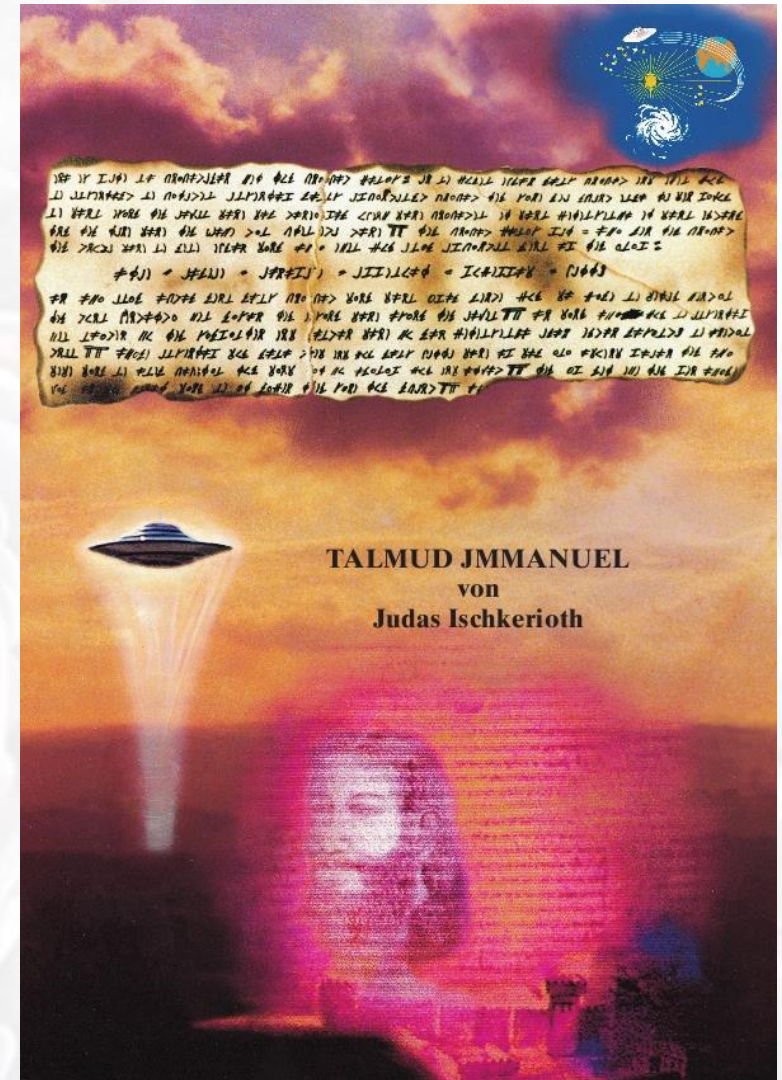

Semjase

103. A change has only occurred in the form of a tightening, because this was humanized and changed according to our time and our development.

Semjase

104. The uniform punishment in these things forms the temporal or lifelong banishment.
