Billy Meier himself about his Mission

From a very early age, my special interests were about life in all aspects. This included the connections with nature and everything creative in general, which of course incorporated profound philosophical aspects of life. However the creative in and of itself in particular, was of very special value to me, as it represented the most important field of thought for me. So at every possible opportunity I delved into these wide-ranging issues and came across questions that could not be answered by the adults, or only partially and never satisfactorily - until I found the answers myself, worked them out for myself, but this was also appearing more and more often through inspirational forces.

So my knowledge about the creative, spiritual and conscious, as well as about the creative laws and commandments, increased more and more, from which it resulted that these things became to predominate a part of my life. This in turn led me to become aware of myself and to realise that I had a mission to fulfil in this field here on earth, which is of great importance for the evolution of the earth folk in a spiritual-conscious way. So I began to fathom the how, where and why of this fact and found out through this that I had already been active in this mission for many millions, even thousands of millions of years, over countless incarnations. I realised that I was a learned and instructed teacher in matters related to the 'teaching of the mind', 'teaching of consciousness', 'teaching of the creative-natural laws and commandments' and 'teaching of evolution' etc., and this was the path I had to take. I had to go the way of mission fulfilment, but first of all I needed a great help from human beings that were not of earthly nature, but of high spiritual as well as of a material-external nature. So in the course of time I was given this help so that I could begin to fulfil my life's mission. This help came when I was a little boy who didn't even go to school. It came from the depths of another world's space, in the form of an extraterrestrial, who became my first high teacher and through whom I gained in a short time an immense knowledge in relation to creation and its laws and commandments as well as the laws of nature and the facts and connections of mind and material consciousness, etc.

Aus dem Zukünftigen lernen

Der Mensch lernt
nichts aus
seiner Vergangenheit,
weil er effektiv alles, was geschehen ist, schnell vergisst und es ihn nach dem ersten Grauen nicht abschreckt, sondern weiterhin gleichgültig macht, folglich er einzig dadurch lernt, was er in Zukunft für sich selbst sowie allgemein für die Umwelt besser macht und an neuem Guten selbst erarbeitet und erwirbt.

Learning from the Future

The human being learns nothing from his/her past, because effectively
he/she quickly forgets everything what has happened and what, after the first dread, is not scared off, but is keeping him/her indifferent; hence he/she only learns through what he/she is making better for the environment in the future, for himself/herself as well as generally, and what is self-developed and acquired as new good.
